

Long Beach-Yokkaichi Sister City Association

Membership Application

The Long Beach-Yokkaichi Sister City Association (LBYSKA), founded in 1963, is the oldest of the Sister Cities in Long Beach. It has several ongoing programs including the Yokkaichi English Fellows, the Trio Exchange, the Environmental Summit Students Program, and the Annual Yokkaichi Municipal Hospital Physicians visit.

Persons who have an interest in the Association are invited to support it at one of the membership levels listed here. All membership levels receive a newsletter three times a year and invitations to the Trio Welcome Dinner, Yokkaichi English Fellows events and other special activities.
